

CALL FOR RESEARCH PARTICIPANTS

An Exploration of Individual Charitable Giving Attitudes and Motivations in the Context of Contemporary Crafts

We are inviting participants to take part in a research project funded by Craftspace through the Arts Council England Catalyst Evolve Programme.

The research will be carried out by an independent researcher and the project aims to explore individual motivations and attitudes to giving funds to contemporary arts and crafts organisations. We will use the research findings to produce a funder's report and research publications.

We are looking for participants who meet all of the following criteria:

- Individuals who have gone to a museum, art gallery, cultural venue and/or other art exhibition space (including craft fairs) in the past year;
- Individuals who have donated funds to charitable causes at least once in the past year;
- Individuals aged 25 and over of any gender; and
- Individuals who are craft enthusiasts, collectors and/or hobbyists.

Research interview discussions will take place on the following dates and times:

- 26 April, 12-7pm
- 27 April, 10-5pm
- 17 May, 12-7pm
- 18 May, 12-7pm
- 25 May, 12-7pm

The interviews will be carried out either face-to-face (if you live in or around Birmingham) or via Skype.

Discussions will last about an hour and we will reimburse local travel costs if participants agree to take part face-to-face. To thank each participant we will offer a small gift as a token of appreciation. Participants will also be entered into a prize draw, subject to their consent. If you are available on any of the dates and times listed above and would like to participate, please contact Caroline Moraes at craft.research.2017@gmail.com to schedule your interview date and time.
