

‘Show your Metal’

A Craftspace project, in conjunction with Home of Metal

Calling metal and music fans to participate in jewellery making workshops with Jewellery Quarter based artist Dauvit Alexander

Image: Dauvit Alexander

You will make a piece of jewellery in precious metal inspired by and reflecting Metal music and culture. Get hands on with traditional jewellery techniques including soldering, casting, cutting and forming metal. No experience needed, just a passion for heavy metal and a willingness to have a go. 12 places available on a first come first served basis.

Free to take part with a £5 donation towards purchase of precious metal to work with

When: workshops over five weeks on a Wednesday 15, 22, 29 May, 5, 12 June

Times: 6pm till 7.45pm (arrive by 5.45pm)

Where: The School of Jewellery, Vittoria St, Birmingham, B1 3PA

Bookings: contact Amy or Sophie at Craftspace, 0121 608 6668, info@craftspace.co.uk

The building is accessible and we can make reasonable adjustments to accommodate needs, but please discuss any access requirements with us at the time of booking so we can ensure your experience is as inclusive and enjoyable as possible.

What happens to the jewellery? You get to keep it but first all the work made will be exhibited in our exhibition ‘Show your Metal’ at MAC. The very essence of the Metal sound was born out of Birmingham’s metal industry. This exhibition connects metal the material and Metal the music. Featuring local jewellers Dauvit Alexander, Daisy Grice and Jordan Herry whose work is inspired by culture and symbols associated with Metal and Rock. Craftspace.co.uk